Nanaimo Airport Commission Call For Nominations

The CVRD is seeking expressions of interest from qualified individuals who wish to be considered for nomination as a member of the Board of the Nanaimo Airport Commission (NAC), commencing in April 2017.

One person will be selected to represent the CVRD for a three year term. The Board of the NAC believes it would benefit from candidates who have experience in one or more of the following: property development, strategic political partnerships, marketing and communication. Further information regarding membership qualifications can be obtained by contacting the CVRD below.

Individuals interested in being considered for nomination are requested to submit an application by 9 AM on Monday, February 6, 2017 to:

2017 CVRD Dog Licencing Campaign

In 2017, the CVRD would like to encourage dog owners to licence their dogs, and to do it for the right reasons. From January 1 to March 31, the CVRD is offering free dog licences and big prizes with Juice FM.

Free first time dog licences are available at CVRD Building, 175 Ingram St, Duncan, before March 31. The regular price is $35. The free licences applies to new puppies, newly adopted dogs, and first time licence holders.

Reduced rate for existing owners is $25 until March 31.

Benefits of dog licencing includes:

- Ride home free if impounded
- Licence revenue put back into dog provision
- Genuine licence data figures generated
- Dog owners rewarded for licencing
- Quarterly prize draw through 89.7 Juice FM

Locations to buy your dog licence:

- Duncan SPCA
- Buckerfields
- Cobble Hill Market
- The Laughing Llama
- Pier 66 Market
- Hi Lo Pets
- Ladysmith City Hall
- Various CVRD locations

Free licences only available at 175 Ingram St, Duncan, before March 31.

Building and Land Development Forums

The Cowichan Valley Regional District (CVRD) is hosting a series of "Lunch and Learn" Forums at its office, 175 Ingram Street, Duncan. These forums provide an opportunity for the local building and development industry and CVRD Planning & Development staff to share information and discuss ideas and topics of mutual interest. The forums include presentations on relevant topics and provide opportunities for questions and discussion.

Thursday, February 9
Planning for Climate Change

Thursday, April 20
Options for Servicing Subdivision

Location: Room 213, CVRD Office,
175 Ingram Street
Time: 12 to 1 PM

The CVRD is currently developing a climate adaptation strategy for the region. The February session will provide highlights of the climate projections for the region and what they mean for you and your customers.

The session will be focused on the implications of the climate change projections for builders, developers, and their clients. It is intended to assist industry professionals, adjust business practices to better serve their customers and reduce insurance liability.
